

What LowCountry members say about TAB:

“(TAB members) talk about what they’re going to do to improve their company... make it better, make cuts, make it happen, how to make the changes, I like being around the kind of people who want to succeed .. it keeps me interested, keeps me excited.”

– Lee Edwards, The Greenery, Hilton Head

“...(TAB) lets me get away from my business to work on my business ... I have become much more focused and it has helped increased our bottom line.”

– Kathryn Murph, ABR Business Machines, Savannah

“Once I have identified a business challenge, my TAB Board helps me better prepare an action plan for addressing the issue and expects me to demonstrate progress each time we meet. The discipline of the TAB process is very positive.”

– Joseph Fraser III, Fraser Construction, Bluffton

“It’s a pump up, getting together and listening to other people’s problems and how they’re facing and solving them. It’s a huge positive. people standing up to challenges, cutting costs, doing what they need to do to survive.” – Bernie Doepker, CPA, Hilton Head

“TAB is a fantastic way for a small company to have its own board of directors there to really help, not just rubber stamp your ideas ...the payback is enormous.”

– James R. Davis, Speedi Sign, Savannah

“I am sold on the benefits. My firm has a new strategic direction and I have a clear personal vision. The TAB process and our facilitator have provided the process, framework and discipline to make it happen. The interaction with other TAB Board members is a huge benefit.” – Forrest Lott, AIA, Lott Barber Architects, Savannah

“... invaluable to my decision-making process. We have a better, more efficient company... I attribute a lot of that change to the open, honest dialog shared by TAB members.”

– Ken Clegg, Stone/Light Inc., Bluffton

“The TAB emphasis on identifying and addressing areas for improvement forces me to be more pro-active with the planning process and more focused on achieving concrete results.”

– Rich Neal, Integrated Network Solutions, INS, Savannah

“...perhaps the most critical part of my decision-making process ...helped me stave off an unfriendly takeover, buy out an existing partner, move my business in a bold new direction.”

– Jeff Evans, Lowcountry Weekly, Beaufort

“...very beneficial in terms of analyzing my business challenges, getting fresh perspectives on everything from hiring to marketing and finding support personally and professionally.”

– Bob Irvine, Ed.D., Sylvan Learning Centers, Savannah

“TAB is a great place to validate and try ideas in a non-threatening, non-competitive environment.” – Steve Stephens, Stage Front Presentation Systems, Savannah

“It’s been a tremendous relief for us to find out that the issues we deal with are issues that every other company is dealing with. We all act as a sounding board for each other... what a resource that is!” – Mark Baker, Wood & Partners, Hilton Head
